Cantina Valpolicella Negrar

Soave comes from the volcanic hills near Verona, it has been produced since Roman times.

On the nose, it develops mostly primary flavours such as peach, melon, citrus and marjoram.

It presents a medium body with a crispy acidity; with its saltiness is the perfect choice for those who wants to chill after a day of work.

Soave has an energy and a vibrant character that makes it very attractive for those that are looking for a good value for money.
